This workshop benefits you AND everyone you serve

Dependable Strengths Facilitator Training is an engaging, three-day experience conducted by a Dependable Strengths Master Trainer. All facilitator trainings start with experiencing the DSAP for yourself - uncovering your own Dependable Strengths to find out what you uniquely do well and enjoy doing. Be prepared for insights and change for yourself and your constituents!

Phase 1 - Experience the DSAP for yourself

In the first part of the training you will be a "participant" in the DSAP and experience the process for yourself to uncover your own Dependable Strengths. You will gain a solid grounding in the process that will give you confidence and experience for leading it with others. As a potential facilitator, experiencing the DSAP for yourself is beneficial for four major reasons:

- You gain personal experience with the process
- You gain credibility with your clients, students, or constituents
- You gain empathy for what they will be doing
- You meet your professional obligation - to be willing to do what you ask others to do!

Phase 2: - Learn to facilitate the DSAP

In the second half of the training you will be your "professional" self again and gain the skills and knowledge needed to deliver the DSAP to others. This will include learning the history and research behind the DSAP, practice teaching parts of the process with the help of colleagues, developing initial plans for implementing your own workshop, and receiving all materials needed for facilitating the process.

You receive 3 days of training, everything you need to facilitate your own Dependable Strengths workshops, and the Level 1 Certification.
