

MAMCD 2017
Theme Multicultural Counseling: A perspective of best practices for helping the diverse,
marginalized,
and oppressed

OPEN-CALL FOR RESEARCH POSTERS

DEADLINE: APRIL 1, 2017

Open-Call for Research Posters

by Maryland Association of Multicultural Counseling and Development Board 2016-2017

Thank you for taking the time to consider submitting a research poster proposal. This year the theme is: Multicultural Counseling: A Perspective of Best Practices for the Diverse, Marginalized, and Oppressed. Below, you will find directions for the proposal submissions. Also, provided below are the deadline that proposals are due and where to submit all proposals.

Research Proposals

Use the following format to head your proposal:

Presenter (s) name: _____

Contact Information: _____

Title/Position/Academic level: _____

College/University associated with: _____

Title of research poster: _____

Description of proposal that is not to exceed 1000 words (importance and background of topic, supporting research, summary of content that includes objectives and target audience): _____

Submission Details

The deadline for proposals is April 1, 2017. They are to emailed to:

astills@howard.edu

Be sure to review all proposals before submitting. Below is a checklist that may be used to assure a successful proposal review:

- Name (s)
- Contact information (email address and phone number)
- Title/Position/Academic level
- College/Univ. associated with
- Title of research poster
- Research description
 - Importance
 - Background
 - Supporting research
 - Summary of content
 - Objectives
 - Target audience

