

Mandatory Reporting to APS and CPS in Maryland

This presentation will provide a review of the mandatory reporting requirements in the State of Maryland to both Adult Protective Services and Child Welfare Services. Presenters will share best practices for submitting a report as well as available programs and resources through the departments of Aging and Disability Services and Child Welfare Services.

Learning Objectives for attendees:

- 1) Summarize mandatory reporting requirements in Maryland
- 2) Identify available resources through both Maryland State and County departments
- 3) Formulate a system of when and how to complete a report to ACS or CPS.
